Assignment

You will create a presentation on the film you have chosen from the current genre.

You will bring this sheet with your name and info on the top line filled out.

Your presentation should be 7 minutes long.

Included in this presentation will be a talk and a showing of a film clip.

In your talk you must cover the elements of the genre that were apparent in the film and you must state if there were any elements in addition. Could this have been categorized in an additional genre? If so, which one(s).
